

SARAJEVO IS TYPICAL ORIENTAL COMMUNITY

Birthplace of Great War is largely a Mohammedan City outside of Turkey.

HAVE FAITH IN AMERICA

Never Change or Wash Clothing as Long as It Will Stay on Their Bodies.

SARAJEVO, April 28.—The scene of the murder of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, which was the precursor of the great world war, is now the headquarters of the United States food administration and of the American Red Cross, which is extending its activities to every part of the Balkans. American officers, soldiers, physicians and nurses are numerous in the streets.

Four and a half years of war have made little change in the ancient capital. With the exception of small districts near the Serbian frontier, Bosnia and Herzegovina were not a battleground and there was no destruction of property. Indeed, except for the wounded and sick Bosnian soldiers returning from Austria and Germany, and the presence of allied officers and troops, there would hardly seem the country had ever been at war.

The streets are thronged with people of all nationalities and of all manner of dress. Christians, Serbs, Austrians, Germans, Turks, Italians, Franchises, Ruthenians and Americans rub elbows with one another. The cafes are always crowded. The moving picture theaters are full at all hours and dancing is ever popular. Public and semi-public balls are frequently held, and gayety reigns to all extremes.

Decidedly Oriental. The slender streets of more than a hundred Turkish mosques give a very picturesque appearance to the city. Nearly one-half of Sarajevo's 50,000 people are of the Mohammedan faith. The scores of Turkish bazaars are well patronized, particularly by Americans who seem to be keen for oriental things of all sorts.

The "Turkish" people here really are Slavs who embraced the Mohammedan religion. They are noted for their indolence and dirtiness. The women never work. Many of the older ones adopt begging for a profession. The Serbs on the other hand, are industrious and tidy. The homes of the Serbian peasants are models of cleanliness.

The people of Bosnia and Herzegovina have great native intelligence. Many speak several languages. The educated classes are students of politics and economics. The words liberty and freedom are constantly on their lips. They say that all their hope is centered in President Wilson.

Never Change Clothes. While there is an abundance of food in the larger cities, some of the villages are suffering severely. There is complete lack of food suitable for children and the sick. Most of the hospitals are badly in need of blankets, linens, surgical dressings and medicines. There has been an alarming increase in the number of typhus cases, particularly among the poor, many of whom have only one outfit of clothing which they never change or wash until worn out. They are therefore good subjects for the typhus house.

These Articles Spell Doom of Hohenzollern and Aides

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The attorney general issued by the state department on the punishment of the ex-emperors follows:

Following are the proposed articles regarding penalties for offenses in the trials of peace to be considered at a plenary session of the conference of ministers (Montevideo) April 29:

Article 1.—The accused and associated powers publicly arraign William II of Hohenzollern, formerly German emperor, not for an offense against humanity, but for a supreme offense against international neutrality and the sanctity of treaties.

A special tribunal will be constituted for the accused, thereby assuring him the guarantee of a right of defense.

It will be composed of five judges, one appointed by each of the following five powers: namely, the United States of America, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan.

In so doing the tribunal will be guided by the highest motives of international policy, with the view of maintaining the solemn obligations of neutrality and non-aggression and international morality. It will be its duty to fix the punishment which it considers should be imposed.

"The cited and associated powers will address a request in the government of The Netherlands for the surrender to them of the ex-emperor in order that he may be put on trial at The Hague.

The German government, not having accepted the proposal of the powers accused, has decided to prosecute the ex-emperor in accordance with the laws and customs of war, such persons will be brought before military tribunals by the cited and associated powers and if found guilty sentenced to the punishments laid down by military law.

"The German government shall hand over to the cited and associated powers all such of them as are accused of having committed an act in violation of the laws and customs of war who are specified either by name, or by the rank, office or employment which they held under the German authorities.

"Article 2.—Persons guilty of criminal acts against the nationals of the cited and associated powers will be tried before the military tribunal of that power.

"Persons guilty of criminal acts against the nationals of more than one of the cited and associated powers will be brought before military tribunals composed of members of the military tribunals of the powers concerned.

"In every case the accused will be entitled to name his own counsel and to have the services of an attorney.

"Article 3.—The German govern-
